Opportunities in the Down Market for Estate Planning

Being Opportunistic With Estate Planning During COVID-19

COVID-19 has unleashed a wave of selling on Wall Street, which has negatively affected stock asset values. The stock market is off nearly 20% as of late April 2020, and the economy seems headed for a long period of uncertainty. You should review your estate plan right now to see how falling asset values could change what you've planned for and open advantageous strategies. Read more HERE.
