Open for Business and Ready to Serve You

In order to comply with the recent order issued by New Jersey Governor Murphy, we have closed out office to the public. We will therefore not be able to conduct in person meetings with clients and/or potential clients until such time as the order is modified or rescinded. We are however open for business and ready to continue providing you with legal counsel.

Our staff and attorneys are working remotely to the extent possible. With the technology employed by the firm, we will continue to be able to communicate by phone, email, and videoconferencing in order to provide legal services as we have done for almost 22 years. This includes but is not limited to new client consultations, document preparation, and representation in litigated matters.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward to serving you.
